

Advertise with IDC

IDC Industry members can take advantage of various advertising opportunities to connect with interior designers coast to coast. To learn more about IDC advertising opportunities, please contact communications@idcanada.org. For more information, please review the IDC advertising prospectus.

Email Broadcast

Please submit the following content 7 business days prior to your deployment date:

- E-blast in HTML format (maximum width: 600 pixels, no maximum height); all images must be hosted online with URLs embedded within the HTML code and not sent as separate image files
- Subject line of your choice

A test version of your e-blast will be sent to you for approval. Please allow for a maximum of three rounds of revisions. Please note, IDC cannot make changes within your e-blast. Any changes required must be made to the HTML code and re-sent to IDC.

All e-blasts include the following disclaimer: “This e-blast is brought to you through IDC’s Email Broadcast program whereby companies may purchase an e-blast to be sent to IDC’s roster of members. This list of members is controlled by IDC. Member information will not be shared with a third party.”

A report on open rates and click-through rates may be provided upon request following deployment.

DISCLAIMER

Advertising is at the discretion of IDC. If the item is not related to the interior design profession, is not perceived as a benefit to IDC members, or occurs at a date/time that conflicts with an IDC event, the item may not be approved. IDC reserves the right to announce blackout periods during the year when third party promotions cannot be sent due to scheduling conflicts.
